

DUCKIE SUMMER TEA PARTY
FLOWER DRESSING

I'd love to add a colourful cascade coming out of the x4 teapots into half of what looks like a disco ball. Then spilling over the ball a bit.

Not sure what height these are going to be set at so wouldn't need much in the bowl itself.

- x4 teapot cascades
- x4 hanging baskets
- x? garden fence dressing

There are two areas where afternoon tea is being served. We are making bespoke fences to cordon off the area. I'm interested to know how deep and wide we would need to make the boxes to have flowers in. Trying not to make them too top heavy. Again, quirky, afternoon tea.
