Images of inspiration from City of Hull

The images help with the research and ideas for Choreography.

All Images were taken at The Marina in Hull, gathering inspiration on how the stories can unfold through thoughts, feelings and history.

Performance Space

Plans

1940's- Now

Performance will take place In St John's The Baptist Church which is part of Hesse Road Network. The church has a strong link with Hull's Fishing Industry.

The space was large enough to hold a good capacity of audience and performance members.

The performance space was a good practical space for our young people .

Seating areas could hold a large amount of audience members
