wildgazelles Had the most amazing night at @middlechildhull All That I Ever Wanted Was Everything. Can't describe how insane the atmosphere and performances were tonight...incredible. I left feeling nostalgic, inspired, and regardless of what happens in the next 24 hours hopeful. Big thanks to @labeteblooms for the tickets which have allowed me and @stephebdon to embrace this experience! I cannot recommend enough, I'm even going to go next week for a second time to see the same performances for more City of Culture talent! - emmashearwood_ We had the pleasure of watching All We Ever Wanted Was Everything written by my old school pal @lukeewardbarnes and produced by @middlechildhull.

It was exhilarating and moving and set in a city I love so much and the cast were fantastic and I'm still on a high and I can't encourage people enough to go see it. Check it out.
