TELL THE WORLD STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

INTRODUCING TELL THE WORLD.

2017 has been an unforgettable year for Hull. As UK City of Culture, we have hosted an extraordinary variety of cultural events that have excited and entertained huge numbers of residents and visitors alike.

This continues in season four, with work from some of the UK's most celebrated contemporary artists, including Maxine Peake, Blast Theory, Marshmallow Laser Feast, Martin Parr, Slung Low, James Graham, Tanika Gupta and the nominees for Turner Prize 2017.

Tell The World also reflects on how Hull is redefining itself, celebrating the qualities that make it a fabulously unique city: our independent spirit, individuality, integrity and sense of humour. Now, more confident than ever, ours is a city on the up.

Where do we go from here?
