THE BIG THINKIN

"Girls aren't the delicate flowers they used to be."

Barbara Buttrick, Hull Boxing Legend – 1949

Ahead of Hull's first ever WOW Festival in March 2017, come and join us for the Big Thinkin.

Featuring Southbank Centre's Artistic Director and WOW Festival founder Jude Kelly plus Poet, Writer and Comedian Kate Fox, the Big Thinkin is your chance to find out more about this exciting and inspiring global movement.

The Big Thinkin is for everyone: women, girls, boys and men. There'll be an opportunity to share your views on gender equality and to suggest a pledge for the Hull 'WOWifesto'.

Places for the Big Thinkin are limited so please email wow@hull2017.co.uk by 5pm on Fri 18 Nov to secure your spot.

Under 16s are welcome to attend accompanied by a responsible adult.
