Where Are We Now? is a summer festival like no other. A gathering of time-served trouble-makers, spoken word rebels, artistic mavericks and left-field music pioneers, converging on Hull to ask of today's counter-culture the soaring, searching question with which David Bowie kissed us goodbye.

The UK has reached a political crossroads. Where it goes next is anyone's guess. Dark divisive forces of racism and prejudice are stirring across the UK (and Europe) in the wake of Brexit and across the Atlantic following the election of Donald Trump. We need to ask our artists, musicians and writers where they stand.
