

SHOP OF POEMS

Princes Quay (Level 2, near River Island)

Polish poet Bohdan Piasecki's Pop-up Poetry Station has been a familiar sight on the streets of Hull this summer, gathering stories and inspiring poems about the local Polish community to amplify its voice. The result is the Shop of Poems, a space with poetry for all, featuring an exhibition, reading space, workshops and an open mic event.

EXHIBITION

24 – 30 Sep, 11am – 6pm

Fresh new Polish and English poetry.

OPEN POETRY WORKSHOP

24 Sep, 11am

Work with Bohdan Piasecki to create, perfect, and rehearse a brand new piece of poetry, with an eye on an evening performance.

For ages 16+
In English and Polish.
No experience necessary.

LAUNCH EVENT

24 Sep, 3pm

Join us at the opening of the Shop of Poems, for a unique bilingual open mic event.

POETRY WORKSHOP FOR FAMILIES

30 Sep, 2.30pm

Poem writing and stories for children and parents.

HULL GADA FINALE

Kardomah 94

29 Sep, 2.30pm & 3.15pm

Live spoken word poetry from Bohdan Piasecki, Weronika Lewandowska, Wojciech Cichoń and Hull-based Polish poets discovered during the project. With new, raw, urgent poems about identity, migration, language, and belonging.

Part of the BBC Contains Strong Language festival.

BE PART OF THE STORY.

Commissioned by
Hull UK City of Culture 2017

Supported by British Council and the Polish Book Institute.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE and only the finale requires advance booking.

Discover more: hull2017.co.uk/hullgada

 @hullgada  #hullgada