We are having difficulties with our venue at present. We had been given confirmation of our booking with the Student's Union. But they have since told us that due to decisions outside of their control they are no longer able to honour the booking. We are liaising with the Student's Union and the University to find a solution but at present we may have to move the event to a different month (which may mean we no longer fall within the season of Freedom), or we may need secure an alternative venue.

It would be helpful to talk to someone in the team about this dilemma and see what impact moving the event to a different date might have on our application to be part of the Creative Communities Programme.
