Funder	Application process	Timescale	Amount	Details
Arts Council England, Grants for the Arts	Rolling application form. Requires match funding & support-in-kind	6 weeks or 3 months	up to £15k or up to £100k	ACE's open access funding programme for individuals, art organisations and other people who use the arts in their work
Paul Hamlyn Foundation, Access & participation fund - explore & test	Application form, rolling programme, doesn't require match funding but ideal & support-in-kind essential	3 months for decision but project shouldn't begin until 4 months from the date of application	for projects to 2 years, up to £60k (most projects 12-18 months & £25k)	to widen access to and deepen participation in the arts; not to simply increase numbers, the emphasis is on addressing inequalities of opportunity; to help organisations to build stronger evidence about what works so that they can improve practice and achieve greater impact & not just for one-off projects
James Reckitt Trust	No application form. Application made by letter for specific meetings	Well in advance of meetings. Meetings in May & Nov	£500-£5k	they have emailed to say they would accept an application, with no guarantee
Jerwood Charitable Foundation	Short proposal & detailed budget, rolling programme, telephone first with the potential application	8 weeks for initial stage;	Small grants of under £10k	a particular focus on supporting emerging talent and excellence & for artists directly, particularly professional development opportunities; doesn't support exhibition costs; usually proactively sourced so unlikely success
Clore Duffield	Initial stage - Brief overview of project & budget, rolling programme, considered at Trustee meetings in June & December	8 weeks for initial stage; whole process takes about 6 months	From £10k upwards	no applications for the poetry & literature awards being accepted at this time; majority of grants for capital projects rather than programming & Charities must apply; particularly interested in funding Clore learning spaces
Esmee Fairbairn Foundation	First stage online form, a rolling programme	one month for first stage, final decision up to 4 months	£5k to £100K	Fund organisational change & development which doesn't really apply; emerging talent which could support artistic commissions but needs to be embedded into the overall project and future of the programming for the gallery; art as an instrument for social change which would be a linked programme
Arts Council England, Research grants programme	Expressions of interest and then a full application. Requires full partnerships. No match funding required.	Open for expressions of interest 14 April, deadline 5 May. Final applications 7 July	£50 k - £200 k	The Research grants programme seeks to build our collective knowledge and deepen our understanding of the impact of arts and culture and to promote greater collaboration and co-operation between the arts and cultural sector and research partners.
Garfield Weston Foundation	Rolling programme, requires 40-50% match funding, apply online	4 months	up to £100k	Only supports charities; supported an innovative IT project from University of Birmingham plus a range of literature projects; needs to demonstrate excellence & impact
Foyle Foundation - Main Grants Scheme - Arts	Rolling programme & application form. Requires match funding & support-in-kind	4 months	Small grants of under £10k or Main grants up to £250k	building projects that improve or re-equip existing arts venues (rather than construction of new facilities, although this will not be excluded) which could enable screens to be built; applications from Charities only & small grants scheme possible for charities with less than £100k turnover
