

Such memories! Happy times and sad. Great to see photos of the former vicars of St. Hilary's. Ian Flanagan. Nov '67 to April '84

Very interesting pictures by Ian Pickering and a very nice man too. Maureen (nee Simpson) Resident 62 (baki) - 1982.

Interesting Pictures Ely Peacock resident

Gay Wood lived here 1958 - 1967 Key up 26
Good work

A fantastic exhibition very touching and moving to meet Reg. Wonderful photographs of this amazing community.

Christy Coulter - Headteacher at Stockwell Primary

@Coulter

A lovely start to E60 thanks for the cheese on sticks and the ~~great~~ nostalgic photos

Charles Full Comm Arts.

Lovely exhibition, memories of the past. Today Betty Great Minds

Great evening. As a 'local lass' really enjoyed it - Brenda

Good night remembering with Steve about Greenfield and as a child growing up on the estate 1958 -

A lovely exhibition, really enjoyed the evening, lovely performance from the Central Arts Club - the gallery is beautiful - Nola

Most enjoyable evening. Great to see the photographs of how the estate came to be.

Ann Storer

Christine Hill

A nostalgic visit to a community I loved hope the venture goes from strength to strength.
Best wish Tom D.

BRAGHT BACK SOME WONDERFUL FAMILY MEMORIES, THANK YOU! ALFRED RAMSDEN.

The joy of moving into a new brick-built house after living in a pre-war!

BRINGS BACK MEMORIES OF A WONDERFUL CHILDHOOD
W. E. Strong

FOND MEMORIES OF THE ESTATE WHERE WE GREW UP.

30/1/17

Pete & Gynis Maskell (mills)

Congratulations on your opening! M+G Reedy.