RE: LAND OF GREEN GINGER UNLEASHED EVENT IN CITY CENTRE. SATURDAY 11 NOVEMBER 2017

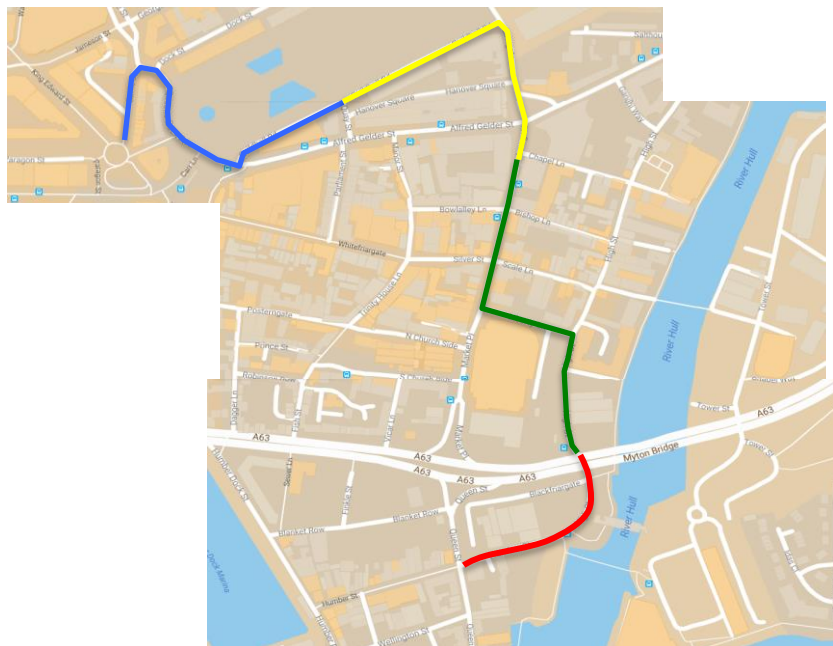

Dear Resident

We are writing to inform you of an event taking place in Hull city centre on Saturday 11 November.

Land of Green Ginger Unleashed is a thrilling and magical parade that will make its way through the city centre, and has been created for Hull by internationally touring artists, Macnas. The parade will bring the city to life with live processional performance, music and pyrotechnics. Land of Green Ginger Unleashed is the culmination of the Land of Green Ginger project, which has been infiltrating communities outside of the city centre since the beginning of the year.

The parade will leave Savile Street at 18:30 on Saturday 11 November and will take approximately 90 minutes to reach the end. The audience are being encouraged to take a position along the route and watch as the full story passes in front of them.

The parade will travel the route as shown on the map below:

Please be advised that the Land of Green Ginger Unleashed event will be held on the evening of Saturday 11 November. It will be necessary to implement a number of road closures in your area on the event day and evening of Friday 10 November. Full details of these can be found in the sheet enclosed.

Please be aware this could result in additional traffic in the surrounding areas. We apologise for any inconvenience caused and hope the information provided here will help minimise the disruption to your household or business.

We trust the information supplied here clearly explains the activity that will be taking place, and this should cause minimal disturbance to residents and businesses in the area.

Should you have any queries or require further information please contact us at: theteam@hull2017.co.uk
