Do you require any further support not outlined above?

I feel the project and workshops will evolve and take shape as the project begins. Although there is a set format or outline of what will happen and how it will look, I think some things are difficult to be too specific about at this stage. So I would like to be able to talk to some one about my project face to face and to discuss my project more in detail, to be able to know exactly what support I can access, and gain some advice and guidance/direction as well. Also to access any potential contacts, links and networks that the Hull2017 team have in the city
