

Eye for detail

Turner Prize 2017 Public Programme

Workshop Plan

10:30 – 14:30

Duration 240mins

The workshop will be split into 4 main sections that investigate discuss the multiple facets of curatorial practice and propose the role of the curator as a combination of the following:

- Curator as researcher
- Curator as selector
- Curator as mediator
- Curator as carer

The workshops will include short exercises within groups that are aimed at exploring through collaborative practice and dialogue.

Surrounding the main facets of the overall workshop will be introductions to my practice as a curator along with a brief introduction to the work of Sacha and George in order for attendees to understand everyone's background.

To conclude the workshop there will be the opportunity to continue some discussions that have stemmed from the previous groups.

Introduction to workshop	10mins
Background to my practice/projects as a curator	10mins
Background to the practice/projects by Turner Prize 17 curators Sacha Craddock and George Vasey	10mins
Discussion: What do we think the curator does?	20mins
Workshop: Curator as...Researcher	30mins
Lunch	40mins
Workshop: Curator as...Selector	30mins
Workshop: Curator as...Mediator	30mins
Workshop: Curator as...Carer	30mins
Open forum for questions and discussion	30mins