

Play with the power of Hull's voice in

RE-REDIFFUSION'S

VOICE PARK

We're on a mission to explore the power of Hull's voice, to find ways to hold, touch and sense the voice, to walk amongst it and find new ways of speaking collectively.

Inspired by the original Rediffusion company which distributed voices across the city, Re-Rediffusion has formed to reverse the network; gathering and distilling voices from the city to play with in the multi-sensory Voice Park.

Thank you for joining us in our quest to find the 'Essence De Voix'.
