ACTORS

HESSA, REKA

LOCATION:

The New City, AARHUS – South harbour

Walking between the leg of the printing machines, we see HESSA looking up framed by the giant structures behind.

HESSA: “Thank you. I’ve brought you here to show you. This is the new city. This is what you have chosen for me.”

Hessa has found a quiet spot. She is looking down at you, framed by the sky.

HESSA: “This is it. The place in the new city where we’re going to start again”

NOTES/Other Text

I thought I could fix things but I realise now that things are never fixed.

We chose to level new ground.

We chose to start afresh.

This is my legacy. A new city. I chose this with my friends.
