

BP CULTURAL VISIONS LECTURE SERIES

The final season of BP's Lecture Series looks to the next stage of Hull and the rest of the UK's creative journey.

Hear from Alex Beard, CEO of the Royal Opera House; Peter Mather, BP's Regional VP for Europe; Sandy Nairne, former Director of the National Portrait Gallery; St John Simpson, Senior Curator for the British Museum, and Sir Ian Blatchford, Director and CEO of the Science Museum Group, as they share with us their personal creative journey, the obstacles they faced, the challenges they overcame and how this shaped them into cultural leaders.

The BP Cultural Visions Lecture Series is hosted by the University of Hull, in association with BP and Hull UK City of Culture 2017.

Wed 4 Oct

Alex Beard with Peter Mather

Wed 18 Oct

Sandy Nairne

Wed 15 Nov

St John Simpson

Wed 13 Dec

Sir Ian Blatchford

Oct – Dec, 6.30pm

Middleton Hall,
University of Hull

[hull2017.co.uk/
culturalvisions](http://hull2017.co.uk/culturalvisions)

Free

OTHER

THE UNIVERSITY OF HULL

LARKIN REFLECTIONS

Explore Philip Larkin's poetic legacy.

Writing the Photograph

Poet John Wedgwood Clarke leads a workshop exploring the connection, movement and voice in Larkin's poetic form.

Born and Bred

Poets Dean Wilson, Russ Litten, Joe Hakim and Vicky Foster join writer Martin Goodman for a frank discussion about Larkin's influence on literature, past and present.

Part of the Larkin Reflections series of events.

1 Oct: Writing the Photograph,
10am – 1pm,
25 Oct: Born and Bred, 6.30 – 9.30pm

University of Hull

hull2017.co.uk/larkin

Free

LITERATURE

